COMMENDATION LETTER

NEPAL HIGH READINESS PROTECTION BATTALION-IV MINUSCA

INTRODUCTION

The aim of this letter is to commend NEPAL HIGH READINESS PROTECTION BATTALION-IV (NEP HRPB-IV) for its outstanding service in United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA) by participating in the operation under Task Force BAMBARI for provision of security and ensuring POC in BOYO.

NARRATIVE OF PERFORMANCE

The NEP HRPB IV troops were deployed as reinforcement to various locations to pacify the situation and to protect the population from any threat possible. After the serious atrocities of from ANTI BALAKA on 7 December 2021, the people of BOYO were about to relieve by the daring and successful intervention of the NEP HRPB IV, first UN troops reached to BOYO and established the TOB with the great challenge and initiative taken by Commander and troops of NEP HRPB for the POC of BOYO. The armed movement of UPC seen in BOYO on 23 December 2021, the quick response by the TOB BOYO for the Protection of Civilian in BOYO by immediate launching the robust patrolling 24/7 through the city of BOYO was a milestone in the POC duties which can protect the civilian though the UPC were entered to the city of BOYO. The relentless effort of the TOB BOYO could protect the lives of the population BOYO.

Visualizing the further deteriorating the situation the NEP HRPB IV Commanding Officer Lt Col Rajesh Bickram Shahi has taken the initiative to move to BOYO on 24 December to lead the troops to push the UPC back to provide security and ensure POC is praiseworthy. The courageous effort of the Battalion Commander and his troops from TOB BOYO with tireless robust patrolling and action could make the BOYO city free from UPC on 26 December 2021 is highly appreciated and commendable. The operation to make BOYO free from UPC was become successful only from the well planned and coordinated effort of NEP HRPB IV troops with a full dedication and devotion to the service to the MINUSCA. At present the situation of BOYO is safe and calm and this very operation has left positive impact of MINUSCA as this military robust presence was the pioneer in the history.

The senior leadership of MINUSCA and various agencies appreciated the courage, determination, endurance and level of professionalism demonstrated by NEP HRPB IV troops under the guidance of Task Force and efficient leadership LT Col Rajesh Bickram Shahi through his initiative professionalism and tremendous military spirit has been able to support and reinforce the operation and make it possible with his outstanding performance. The contribution offers by his very valuable team members also immensely and ardently counted to make the operation a big success.
